

International Conference on Purananuru (புறநானூறு)
Washington D.C. Metropolitan Area

My favorite Poem in Purananuru

This is not really a competition. This program provides an opportunity to the participants to express their ideas about a Purananuru poem of their choice. All those who want to participate in this program should register for the conference before August 15, 2013 and indicate their intention to participate in this program by completing the appropriate section in the Registration form. In view of the time constraints during the conference, only the first ten participants will be selected to participate in this program. Please contact Thiru. Naanjil Peter at naanjilpeter@gmail.com for further information.
